

Measurement of Hound Height

All beagles must be measured at the highest point of the shoulder blades (withers) with an adjustable measuring stand with the part touching the hound serrated (saw tooth). This must be done as part of the registration process and to be able to compete in ARHA field trials. All measurements must be in inches. The height is not to exceed 15 inches for registration in the ARHA.

